

Share Location Sequence Diagram

---

Sequence description

1. The User initiates the interaction by sending a "Get Current Location" request to the Location Service.
2. The Location Service is activated and retrieves the location data.
3. The Location Service sends the location data (Latitude, Longitude) back to the User.
4. The User then shares the location data with the External System.